

Leicester, Sept^r, 27th

Dear Miss Weston,

You may be glad of the information - such as it is - which is conveyed by the accompanying slip, which I have taken from the London Inquirer; though I dare say your sister Caroline has brought you other & far more definite reports.

I have just learned from Mrs. May (who is in Boston) of the death of Miss Catherine Sargent. My mother & she were very sorry that they did not hear of it in season to attend the funeral. I have not seen the death mentioned in any paper.

I hope your Sister Caroline experienced no ill effects from her voyage; or, if so, that she has quite recovered from them.

My welcome home to her may come rather late, but it is quite sincere & cordial. I called at Chauncey's place on the morning of her arrival at Boston, but learned that she (probably) went directly to Weymouth.

Please give my respects
to all your family.

Very truly Yours
Saml. May Jr

TO THE EDITOR.

SIR,—As many of your readers may be stimulated by the perusal of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to act upon the suggestions of the Revs. E. Kell, H. Solly, and G. Armstrong, to work for the American Anti-Slavery Bazaar, it may aid their purpose to know that there are ladies in various towns beside Bristol, who will receive and transmit contributions to Boston. The following names are taken from an appeal on behalf of the Bazaar:—Mrs. Hayes, 3, Marlborough-buildings, Bath; Mrs. Harry Hunt, Edgbaston, Birmingham; Miss A. Knight, Chelmsford; Miss Furber, Cheltenham, Mrs. R. D. Webb, Dublin; Mrs. J. Wighain, Edinburgh; The Misses Davis, Evesham; Miss Russell, Wotton Lodge, Gloucester; Mrs. J. Lupton, Blenheim-square, Leeds; Mrs. Reid, 21, York-terrace, Regent's park, London; Mrs. R. Gaskell, Warrington (removed to Rock Ferry, Liverpool); Miss Whitelegge, Abercrombie-place, Manchester; Mrs. W. Enfield, Nottingham; Mrs. Odgers, Plymouth; Miss Lettis, Yarmouth.

Contributions should be sent by the 25th of September.

ONE OF THE COLLECTORS.
